

Katherine "Kay" Rice Koubek

February 10, 2016

Katherine R Rice, 88, of Venice Fl, died peacefully on February 10, 2016. Daughter of James and Kathleen Rice, Kay was born and raised in New York, New York. She met the love of her life, George J Koubek, at PepsiCo upon his return from WWII, was blessed with 50 years of marriage and raised three children in Huntington, NY. , with summers in her family home in Montauk, N.Y. Kay, a resident of Venice since 1979, loved living on Venice Beach, enjoyed all the natural beauty right outside her window – fishing, swimming and walking the beach. Kay pursued numerous interests with passion – tennis, travel, golfing, painting, floral design, bridge and had an extensive social life.

She was predeceased by her husband and son George Noel, and son in law, Neil McKeown. Kay is survived by daughters Carol McKeown of Duck, NC, Kathleen Caputo & Son in Law Jay Caputo of Syossett, NY, son Randall and daughter in law, Jane Koubek of Tampa, Fl. Kay is also survived by six beautiful and loving grandchildren and spouses whom she adored – Brian McKeown, Kevin McKeown, Janet Karp, Dana Caputo, Carl Koubek and Colleen Morahan Koubek and a great-granddaughter, Colleen McGraw Koubek.

Kay was a member of Venice Yacht Club and Epiphany Cathedral for over 35 years.

Kay lived her life to the absolute fullest, and we will miss her constant smile and determined optimism.

A graveside memorial service will be held for Katherine at Pinelawn National Military Cemetery in Farmingdale, NY, where she will rest with her husband and son.

Donations can be made to Tidewell Hospice of Venice, where Kay devoted her services.

Toale Brothers Funeral Homes, Ewing Chapel is in charge of arrangements