“ I met Kathy through her daughter Misty, my best friend. I will remember dearly her laugh, which we got to do together many times over the years. Her heart was so gentle, sensitive and kind and her eyes would shine even brighter when she saw her children, grandchildren and furry children happy and taken care of. I feel so fortunate to have known and connected with Kathy, and look forward to watching her shine through the people who love her. I send my deepest condolences and love to you all.

“ Kathy & I started our jobs together in 1999. Her & I took to each other and used to go on break together. I got to know how important family was to Kathy and how proud she was of hers. I am sad to know that Kathy is gone from this world but I am happy that she is in a place free from pain and where she can rest. Kathy, I do believe we will see each other again. God Bless you and your loved ones.

“ Oh my dear Kathy...though the years had separated us physically with moves and busy life changes, after 10 years of nearly every day pal time, spiritually we've remained the best of friends, and each chat was like we never left each other's side. I have too many fond memories to speak of, I have always considered you to be the BEST friend I ever had, nobody replaced you, a friendship for which I will always cherish. I will especially remember you each Christmas, as I always do, how we shopped and enjoyed setting up our Christmas villages, our decorations, and shared great Christmas "finds" that we each MUST have! I smile at all the times we spent cherishing our families, my times spent sharing meals with you and Denny, every holiday gathering besides "just another day" get togethers, watching and confiding in each other our deepest dreams and hopes for our children and grandchildren as they grew up. I could talk to you about ANYTHING and WOW could we laugh at the same! I know we are connected spiritually and I'll continue to chat you up whenever, I know you will always "be there" and smiling that warm and comforting, loving smile...back. I am so sorry for your lost battle, what a fighter (that's my gal!) you have been...rest now, dear friend, laugh with the angels, and keep an eye on us all, until we meet again. Save me a seat at the table, we'll catch up and keep 'em all positive and laughing! Always, love, thank you from the bottom of my heart for sharing yours, with me. XOXO, -Kimberleigh

“ I met Kathy several years ago, through a mutual friend, Laura. She had such a kind and welcoming way about her, I knew she was a special lady. She had a certain way about her that reminded me of my Mom, and that, to me, says it all. I'll miss seeing her smiling face at our annual Christmas- wrapping party. RIP Kathy, I know you're all better now. Thoughts and prayers to her family. Xox Deb
