

Kathleen "Kathy" Bolam

June 2, 2017

Kathleen "Kathy" Bolam, 81, went to be with our Lord her savior on June 2nd 2017 after a battle with cancer.

Originally of Detroit, Michigan, and Albany N.Y. She is survived by 9 children, John (Kim), Michael, William (Laurie), Marianne, Catherine Terry, Christopher, Patricia Serio, Anita, and Kimberly Huffman. 24 grandchildren, and 20 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her loving husband, Edward in 2010. She was a Savvy businesswoman owning several businesses in the Venice area including Bolams Mobil Mart on the island in Venice, and she is a former Tupperware distributor in Albany N.Y. She was a devout Christian, and was one of the founding members of the Bible Read-a-thon held for the last 8 years in Venice. She was an advocate for the Constitution, civic causes, and for the Common-Law Grand Jury.

She was associated with Sarasota Patriots Group, the local John Birch Society, the Venice Tea Party and the Take Our Country Back Group of Englewood. She played the piano for several local churches and nursing homes, she was an advocate for and ministered to the homeless, and helped initiate monthly Prayer Meetings at the Downtown Venice Gazebo for America and its leaders. A

"Celebration of Life" is planned for Wednesday, June 7th, 2017, at Ewing

Funeral Home on Venice Ave, at 6pm.

In lieu of flowers, the family asked to make a donation to The Gideons ,
Pregency Solutions of Venice, Salvation Army of Venice, or the Andrew
Wommack ministries.
