“ I had the honor and pleasure to have served with Kevin at Westover in the 58th APS. Kevin was a great guy who would always pitch in to help his fellow airmen no matter what the task. He helped mold junior troops by his steadfast dedication to mission completion and provided a non judgemental listening ear to others who were troubled. He will be missed.

“ I work with your dad at enterprise, and as great a guy as people say he was, he was even better than that. He and his sense of humor will be missed and here's hoping he sees how much he was loved by all of us.

“ Kevin ,was a wonderful son to his mom and dad,brother, dad to his sons, husband, uncle , and special friend.
I am sure his dad was waiting with God for Kevin...
His dad hugging him and telling him he had the horseshoes all set up. Kevin asking if after he beats him..can they go fishing...
You are separated from us for only a while but never separated from our hearts...
Deepest sympathy to all.
