Laura was a very sweet and loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt and friend. She always wore a smile on her face.

Her family was the most important thing in her life and her time was spent doing whatever she could do to make their lives better. When her children were young, she and her husband worked very hard to send them to Catholic elementary and high schools and college.

She was a devout Catholic and a member of Incarnation Church Women's Guild for many years. In her later years she went to Senior Friendship Center everyday on the SCAT bus. She loved music and dancing. She also enjoyed painting with watercolor.
