

Lenore Mae White

May 3, 2022

Lenore Mae White, of Venice, Florida, originally from Corning, New York, passed away May 3, 2022.

She is predeceased by parents Raymond and Bessie Davis, husband Hal White, son's Chris Lamphear, Jeffrey Lamphear and Maurice Lamphear and daughter Pamela Sproule.

She is survived by daughter's Sandra Lidey and Rebecca Lamphear and 12 grandchildren, Jennifer Lamphear, Amber Lamphear, Maurice Lamphear, Stephanie Sproule, Robert Sproule, Michelle Lamphear, Alexis Murphy, Kimberly Lidey, Jessica Force, Chase Ramsey, Reece Ramsey, and Andrea Ramsey and 13 great-grandchildren.

In Corning, NY she worked for Corning Glass Works and 17 years as a waitress at Treadway Inn. Upon moving to Venice, she worked 12 years as a waitress at Old South Oyster Bar.

She belonged to Moose Lodge for 50 years, American Legion & VFW in Corning, NY. She was Auxiliary Commander at D.A.V. in Venice for 2 years.

Tribute Wall

LP

“ On behalf of the Greater Utica Sports HOF in Utica, NY, please accept our sympathies to all of Mrs. White's family. Mr. White was an inaugural member of our HOF, and is still a treasured member!

*May God bless you all,
Lou Parrotta, Past President
Lfparrotta@aol.com*

Lou Parrotta - May 16, 2022 at 02:29 PM