“ Aunt Leota, you will be missed by so many and I celebrate your always joyful, witty spirit. I remember celebrating many family gatherings in the basement of your home. Those were fun times! I'm sorry for your kids and grandkids and great grandkids who will miss your presence down here. But we are better for having known you. I hope to include this old picture that I found.

“ My sweet Aunt, my God Mother I will miss you. Aunt Leota always sent me birthday cards, sometimes two for the same birthday year-I liked them both! I would threaten her because she was my God Mother and she promised to care for me if anything happened to my parents, so I would tell her I was moving in with her one of these days. She would laugh and smile just like Grandma Green. Say hello to Arty. Always Loved You Wally
