

Margaret Mary Quinlan

November 20, 1926 - June 21, 2016

Margaret Mary Quinlan (Harrington) born November 20, 1926 in Philadelphia, PA, passed away peacefully on June 21, 2016 encircled by her family's love.

Affectionately called Peggy or Peg, her most favorite title was Mrs. Jack Quinlan. Married for just shy of 70 years, Peg and Jack shared an amazing love; it overflowed with humor and deep respect.

Peg was the strong and dynamic Mother of six children: Maureen Horn (Steve) Sarasota, FL, John G Quinlan (Josephine) Cape May, NJ and Killarney, Ireland, Margaret Ann Quinlan (Howard Blazer), Parrish, FL, Rodger T Quinlan (Adeline) Sarasota, FL, Regina Quinlan, Sausalito, CA and Lori Quinlan, Sarasota, FL. Her grandchildren, Stephen Horn (Beth) Sarasota, FL, Ian Kaufmann Philadelphia, PA, Christopher McDonald, Ft Lauderdale, FL, MeganKate McDonald O'Mahony (Gregory) Stuart, FL, Brandon Kuzma Brooklyn, NY, Rachel Grace Kuzma Brooklyn, NY, Olivia Quinlan Sarasota, FL, Matthew Quinlan Sarasota, FL and Andrew Quinlan Sarasota, FL; will long cherish the memory of a Nana overflowing with elegance, composure and style. Peg's great grandsons Jack Quinn Horn and Charlie Horn, Sarasota, FL will forever remember Nana for her endless love and chocolates.

Peg, as co-founder of Celtic Golf, was an entrepreneur with a razor sharp vision of excellence in marketing and service. Her soft spoken and poised persona hid a keen and savvy business sense. While it may sound trite, Peg's genuine interest in other people has left an indelible mark on each person she has met. She was truly a gem!

Funeral arrangements will be private.

At Peg's request, memorial donations may be sent to The Development Fund of The Sisters of St. Joseph, 516 Lafayette Street, Cape May, NJ 08204
