“ Did Marian reside in Pompano Beach prior to her husband's death? My sister and I visited our parents at Atlantic Terrace West many years ago and we were wondering if this might be the same person we met? I apologize for intruding on your grief but our dad recently passed at age 98 and we have been sharing some wonderful memories.

“ *Ken, Debbie & All,
Marian was such a sweet lady. I always enjoyed when she came to the office, she walked in with a beautiful smile for you. It was an honor to know her. She was a proud woman and proud of her family. Peace to all.

“ To the Judge Family,
Marian was not only my aunt but my godmother as well. I have a favorite picture of her and Uncle Bob holding me at my christening. I'm glad our family insisted on yearly gatherings, affectionately known as "Judge Christmas" (which in later years, took place in July)! I have many memories with my cousins, but joking about Aunt Marian's aspic is a favorite. To this day, I don't know if it's a dessert or a side dish!
Marian was no pushover and, as kids, we didn't dare cross her, but she had a great sense of humor and made my mother laugh. She will always be remembered and holds a unique place in my heart. Wish I could be there to say goodbye.
Love to all of you,
Cousin Pat
