

Marilyn Kay Werner

June 20, 1940 - October 18, 2019

On Friday October 18, 2019, Marilyn Kay Werner passed away at the age of 79. Marilyn was born in Detroit, Michigan, daughter to Nelson and Hilda Crook, and sister to James Crook.

Marilyn and her young family moved to Derry, Pennsylvania where she lived until she moved to Sarasota, Florida to be with her elderly parents.

Marilyn loved to travel the world with her best friend JoAnne Warber. Most importantly, Marilyn had a devotion for her family. She loved that her children all remain the best of friends, and that her grandchildren grew up with those same values.

She is lovingly remembered by her daughters, Tamra (Philip) Losier, Laura (Mike) Heystek, Glenda Kay Lickenfelt, Linda (James) Shaffer, Diana (Daniel) Losier, and her son Thomas Glenn Werner, III. She is also remembered by her 15 cherished grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

There will be no service per her wishes just family time.
