

Marion Tate

September 30, 1925 - January 19, 2023

Marion Tate passed away peacefully at age 97 at the Carroll Center at Glenridge on Palmer Ranch in Sarasota, Florida on January 19, 2023.

Marion was born in Brooklyn, New York on September 20, 1925 to Frederick and Mildred (Waldorf) Kapper.

Marion spent her early years in Brooklyn and graduated from Packer Collegiate Institute in 1943. She went on to work at the Flatbush and the Dime Savings Banks until her marriage.

Shortly after WW2 ended, Marion met a handsome soldier, Arthur Tate, who had recently returned from the war in Europe. He just happened to live one floor up from her family's apartment on Caton Avenue. They married in August of 1947.

Marion and Art moved to Garden City, N.Y. in the early 1950's after their two daughters, JoAnne and Susan were born. A few years later, their son Robert was born. Garden City would be home for nearly thirty years.

Marion and Art relocated to Sarasota, Florida in 1979, shortly after Art retired. During these years, Marion and Art enjoyed many wonderful trips that included most of the European countries, China, Japan, Thailand, Argentina and Brazil.

Marion and Art enjoyed everything Sarasota had to offer with the many friends they made over the years.

Marion moved to The Glenridge, a lovely retirement community, shortly after Art passed away in 2001. She lived independently until just a few months before she died.

Marion enjoyed golf, activities at the Sarasota Yacht Club, bridge with friends and her Foreign Affairs class at Glenridge. She loved the theater and was a regular at the Asolo Repertory Theater right up until 2020.

Marion was predeceased by her husband Arthur, her daughter JoAnne, and her only sibling Frederick P. Kapper, Jr.

She is survived by a daughter Susan (Mark Hogan) and son Robert (Karen), three grandchildren, Adam Pingley (Rachel), Rebecca Clark (Joe), and Katherine Tate (Rachel Hayes), and four great grandchildren, Kailynn, Sara and Tommy Clark and Kali Werner, Services were private.
