“ Dear Martha and David and families: I don't think we ever saw Mary again after the move to Florida; but we have so many memories of the entire family during the years before. We remember all the camping trips with Dick waking us so early and Dave & Brian always finding a stream to get wet in...going to watch you march in parades on holidays when we were camping in Ct. Your Mom and Bill always having so much fun with their birthdays.....I find it so interesting that Mary was just a few months older than Brian and they died within a day of each other; him on the 26th. Such a sad time for all of us but we have such great memories and the wonderful future of seeing them again in God's time.

Our best wishes to all of you and we'll keep you in our prayers during the hard days ahead. Sincerely, Barb and Bill

“ I was surprised and saddened to read about Mary's passing in the paper this weekend. I counted Mary as a good friend and fellow “Josh's mom” in our days together at SCS and meeting for coffee after the boys went to different high schools. Joshua, Michael and Stephanie, your mom loved talking about you and was so proud of each of you. Our hearts go out to you in this great and deep loss of your mom. She was a lovely, gentle, kind hearted and generous friend. Gabe really enjoyed working for her during high school and Josh spent many hours at her home during elementary and middle school. Mary I know you were a cherished sister. Praying that your memories will give you comfort and peace in the months ahead. With much love and deep sympathy, Jeff and Lynne Streitmatter and sons

“ So sorry for your loss. Mary had the BEST laugh! You couldn't help but laugh along when you heard Mary giggle! She will be missed by so many here on earth, but what peace we have knowing she is with her heavenly Father.

“ My heart goes out to Martha, John, Joshua and all of their family. I met them through Mary and Martha's mother, Edna Miller, who was a dear friend for many years. They were a loving family and Edna delighted in having them all close by. It is sad that lovely Mary is gone from their lives, but we all rejoice that she is now safely with her Lord and Savior in her new home after a very tough battle. My sincerest sympathy and love to all of her devoted family. Rose Reese
