

Maryann Tata

July 14, 1935 - April 24, 2017

Maryann Tata of Longboat Key, FL, passed away on Monday, April 24, 2017 after a long illness. She was 81 years young.

Maryann was born July 14, 1935 in New Britain, Connecticut to Mae and Ernest Hanson. As a young woman, she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Mount Holyoke College and later studied at Florida Atlantic University earning her Masters in Education.

She was passionate about her students and colleagues at both Addison Mizner Elementary and Citrus Cove Elementary.

In her retirement years, Maryann took her passions to the Friends of the Boynton Beach Library and the Longboat Key Library where she volunteered countless hours.

Maryann is survived by her husband Robert with whom she shared 59 years of marriage. Together they share three children Virginia (Richard) Phillips, Amy (David) Winslow and Steven (Rona) Tata, along with seven grandchildren: Gwendolyn (Austin), Annemarie, Marissa (Joseph), Alyson, Korey, Sarah, and Kate and Great Granddaughter Matilde.

The last three years were spent making new friends at Freedom Village in Bradenton.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, April 29, 2017 at 2:00 p.m. in the Freedom Village Auditorium located at 6404 21st Avenue W, Bradenton, FL. 34209.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the Longboat Key library in Maryann's.

Toale Brothers Funeral Homes, Bradenton Chapel is handling arrangements.
