“ I worked for Mendell in the mid 1980's and he taught me so much about semiconductors and even more about life. We had lunch every day together for about 2yrs and had a ton of laughs. He was an awesome guy and will forever be in my thoughts. I cant even count how many times I've quoted him when mentoring others. He was like a 2nd father to me during those years, my Sincere Condolensces to his Family...Bruce Fried
