

Michael Camardo

August 9, 2017

Michael Camardo of Venice, Florida, formerly from Chicago, Illinois passed away peacefully in his home at the age 91.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Joann and youngest daughter Lori (2017).

He is survived by his daughter Toni Mailloux and husband Fred, granddaughter Lindsey Van Kirk and grandson Christopher Boldebuck, also three great-grandchildren.

Mike was proud to serve his country in WWII, enlisting in the Navy at just 16 years of age. He had a life time career at Proctor and Gamble, where he ran the Crisco Oil Plant. It was there he met his wife of 62 years, Joann, and they married in 1954. They resided in Chicago where they raised their two daughters.

Mike retired at 59 and moved to Venice where he enjoyed volunteering in his church and community. He ushered at Epiphany for 30 years and was a proud member of the Knights of Columbus and the American Legion.

Mike was best known for his quick wit, caring nature and generous spirit, and will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

A memorial mass will be held at Epiphany Cathedral Chapel on Monday, August 28, 2017 at 11:00 AM.

In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made to Tidewell Hospice 5955 Rand Blvd., Sarasota, Fl. 34238.

Toale Brothers Ewing Chapel is in charge of arrangements.
