“ Michael was anointed as a joy giver and servant in this ugly world. There is nothing in my memory of his unspoiled kindness that will tarnish that beautiful soul. We live in a fallen world; pain surrounds. Michael was a product of a loving family and his heart was full of love for each of them. I cannot measure your pain, but Jesus can, and He will, as He says in His psalms, He will cover you with His wings. Hide in the Heart of Christ, in His dwelling place, and there, you will find Michael resting . We will continue to love him in his passing, as we did in his living. Ciao, my friend!
