

Milton A. Hatfield

March 13, 1932 - April 10, 2017

Milton A. Hatfield, 85, of Sarasota, FL, returned home to be reunited with his love and Lord while surrounded by his family. He was born in Aruba to Opal Daily and to Horace Hatfield.

Upon high school graduation, Milt completed Navy ROTC and his Bachelor's Degree in Economics from the University of Missouri. Milt proudly served in the United States Marine Corps as a demolitions and fire arms instructor at both Camp Lejeune and Quantico. After his honorable discharge, Milt completed his Master Degree in Economics, at the University of Missouri, prior to joining IBM sales.

After an illustrious 30 year IBM career, Milton and his beautiful wife, Joan, retired to Sarasota, FL, and Marblehead, MA, to enjoy golfing and spending time with family and grandchildren. His grandchildren include Amanda Symons of Texas, Ashley Symons of Michigan, Madeline Hatfield of Indiana, Nicole Lopez of Sarasota, and Caroline Hatfield of Indiana.

Milt is survived by his brother, Maynard "Al" Hatfield of Minnesota, sister, Marsha Bradley of Missouri, daughter, Maureen "Moe" Lopez of Sarasota, daughter, Michelle Symons of Michigan, and son, Milton Hatfield of Indiana.
