

Nancy Carr Reinheimer

October 8, 2016

Nancy Carr Reinheimer passed away in Sarasota following a lengthy illness.

Nancy was born in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Dorothy and Francis Carr. After Friend's School and Goucher College, Nancy moved to New York City and entered the real estate business with Brown Harris Stevens. She was a supporter of women's rights and Planned Parenthood, as well as a Colonial Dame of America and a member of the Colony Club and the Onteora Club.

In 1990, Nancy and Peter, her loving husband, moved to Sarasota, where she became active in community affairs. As President of the New College Library Association, Nancy helped found The Sarasota Reading Festival. She was also President of Selby Garden Associates and a co-founder of "High Tea at High Noon", the annual luncheon which supports Planned Parenthood. Nancy was known for her sharp wit, beauty and a devilish twinkle in her eye. She was well-loved and adored by her husband, family and a large group of wonderful friends. Nancy and Peter enjoyed family, travel, tennis, golf and bridge.

Survivors include her husband of 44 years, Peter; her children and stepchildren Amanda, Anne, Catherine, Frank, Gigi, and Karen; granddaughters Cordelia and Parker; daughters-in-law Hillary and Susan; sister-in-law, June and Nancy's very protective cat Muffy.

In addition to her parents, Nancy was preceded in death by her brother, Louis.

Services will be held at 2:00 PM Tuesday, October 18, 2016 at The First United Methodist Church of Sarasota, 104 South Pineapple Ave., Sarasota, Florida 34236.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to The Humane Society of Sarasota County, 2331 15th Street Sarasota, Florida 34237.

Tribute Wall

JP

“ My sympathies are with the family of Nancy. In the bible we are given hope and comfort. Ps. 147:3 "God heals the brokenhearted and binds their wounds."

Joyce Perkins - October 21, 2016 at 12:00 AM

JN

“ We'll miss her. Personal letter to Peter follows.

James and Frederica Neff - October 11, 2016 at 12:00 AM