

Neil T. Walz

March 25, 1955 - April 30, 2016

Neil T. Walz, March 25, 1955 – April 30, 2016, a gifted artist and writer, world traveler, resident of Englewood, FL and formerly Sarasota, FL, died suddenly of heart disease at his home.

Neil is predeceased by his beloved father Clete Walz who died 10/18/15, and is survived by his loving mother, Doreen M. Walz, sister Michelle Walz Piana, nephews Ryan Piana and Tyler Piana, nieces Courtney Piana Hein and Taryn Piana, and uncles and cousins around the world including Norway, Wales and England.

Neil was born in Baltimore, Maryland and the military family moved many times within the United States, England and Wales. He graduated from high school in Nashville, Tennessee, and then studied at the Wallasey School of Art in Wales.

Neil was a brilliant artist and his paintings now hang in homes worldwide including the home of renowned artist and sculptor Jack Dowd.

Please join us for Celebration of Life and display of some of Neil's art at Toale Brothers, 40 N. Orange Avenue, Sarasota on Tuesday, May 31, 5:00-7:00.