

Nicole Marie Rodgers

September 1, 1985 - March 9, 2018

Nicole Marie Rodgers passed away on March 9, 2018. She was born on September 1, 1985 in Tampa Florida to Byron and Mary (Mckenzie) Rodgers.

She is survived by her father Byron, her mother Mary, her grandmother Harriet McKenzie and her beloved 11 yr old Lab beagle Reilly

Nicole was a Florida native and was raised in Sarasota since the age of 5. She loved everyone and was a counselor to many.

Nicole loved music more than anything and her sparetime was always spent at concerts. Growing up she was a Brownie, Girl Scout, Tap, Jazz and Ballet dancer. Nicole was an amazing writer who wrote many poems. She attended the Broadway theatre Academy and was in productions of Oliver, The Lion King and Grease. Nicole was a very talented illustrator and taught every young person she knew all of her gifts and talents.

Nicole (Cole) was a bribrant young lady who loved to make everyone laugh. If you were having a complaint about life, she knew how to make you chuckle. She was treasured in life because she gave you her undivided attention when you spoke to her. Cole gave all she had to everyone in life, and in death; her heart, liver, kidneys and pancreas were donated to Lifelink at SMH.

Her celebration of life will be held at Ken Thompson Park. Saturday 3.17.18 at 2:00 pm.

In lieu of flowers, donations go to any organization that promotes the counseling of those who need support and the lifting up of others who need to know someone cares about them as much as Cole did.

“ I just heard the news today of your passing. Thank you for always being a beautiful person. All my heart and all my love goes out to those you loved and all who loved you. I can still remember us all during high school years at lunch chit chatting away about random things and laughing away about those things. This isnt the end and Im sure Ill see you again. Peace, love, and harmony. -The tall blonde guy named Earl
