

Norbert Friedrich Fleischmann

October 4, 1930 - October 11, 2018

Norbert Friedrich Fleischmann, born October 4, 1930 in Erlangen, Germany, died October 11, 2018 in Jupiter, Florida.

Norbert is survived by his loving wife of 63 years, Ingrid and 3 children, Jacqueline Fleischmann Kelly (Thomas), Linda Lyons, and Steven Fleischmann (Carrie), 9 grandchildren, Diana Kelly Buchanan (Matthew), John, Monica, and Tommy Kelly, Lindsey Lyons, Stephanie Lyons Mercier (David), Alexis, Connor, and Abigail Fleischmann, 4 great-grandchildren, and family in Germany. He emigrated from his beloved Germany to the Bronx, New York City in 1950 and served honorably in the US Army for his newly adopted country. He met Ingrid Essbauer, of Munich, Germany, while working in NYC and they wed in 1954. They built a wonderful life together in the City, then moved to Long Island, and then Jupiter, Florida. Norbert was a trained machinist, and worked for several domestic companies. He loved to fix things, garden, and help his treasured Ingrid with her incredible baking and German cooking. He loved God, his family, his home, family traditions, and our flag. He was a model for loyalty, sacrifice, hard work, and precision. He leaves behind a beautiful Legacy and will be deeply missed.

“ Steve,
Very Sorry For Your Lost ... Seems Your Dad Was A Very Hard Working And Great Person. They Don't Make Them Like That Anymore. He Will Always Be With You To Watch Over His Family
