“ We are so greatly saddened at Norm's passing. We were fortunate to have met he and Cindi in Colorado and have shared wonderful times together, whether hiking, golfing, or just enjoying a nice evening at our homes with, of course, a nice glass of fine wine. Norm was such a gentleman with the sweetest sense of humor, he will be greatly missed. We are proud to say he was our friend, and glad he came into our life's, however brief.

“ Cindi and Ashley. For me it started that day in our parents home in Sky Lake. Norm had something he wanted to try out on me. He wanted to test out asking Dad for your hand in marriage Cindi. I thought it was really cool and never forgot it. Norm went on to become an integral part of our family always to be counted in and always quick to joke or a poke and always in good fun. Words can't stem the sorrow, but can serve to remind us of just how lucky we were. Love, Pat, Abby, Connor and Cory.

“ Dear Cindy and family, We would like to add to what I am sure is a large out pouring of condolences from your many friends and extended family. In the few years of our acquaintance we have enjoyed being with both of you on many fun occasions. Norman was always such a positive person to be around and well respected by all of our friends in Bradenton. He will be missed but well remembered by all of us. We are thinking and supporting you through this difficult time as you readjust to this tragic loss. With sympathy, Jim and Betty

“ My sincere condolences on your loss. I knew Norm only briefly as I graduated in April 1967 and have been elsewhere other than Florida most of the remaining years, but my remembrances were all very positive, that he was truly an inspiring an upbeat individual. Most of us are no strangers to the finality of death, from our parents to in our case our precious son who entered life eternal a little over 4 years ago at age 35. It is never easy for those of us who loved a person and yet remain here on earth afterward to accept death as a required step in our earthly existence. It is only through the Grace of God through Jesus Christ, who forgives all our misdeeds and accepts us into eternal life to one day be reunited with all other believers, that we can ever cope with the mortal nature of our lives. I pray that you receive that blessing, and are able to continue blessing the others who remain in your earthly life with that reassurance. God Bless you.
