“ One time Norm and Maureen came to Oklahoma. We took them camping at the lake. It was very hot even the water at the beach. We figured that being out in the boat it would be cooler. Well the battery went out on the boat and we couldn't find one. So we were stuck on land. We had our camper which was air conditioned and a tent for the girls. Gene was so smart that as we were putting up the girls tent he said "Watch out for snakes". Well the girls didn't sleep in the tent. The next day someone left the door open to the camper and the wasps took over. We decided to go home to Tulsa. When we got home I cooked a Turkey and both Norm and Maureen got sick. That was a vacation that none of us have forgotten.

May Norm rest in peace.
