

Panagiotis Papadogeorgis

July 27, 1950 - October 16, 2018

On Tuesday October 16, 2018 Panagiotis Papadogeorgis, a loving father, passed away at age 68 in his home surrounded by family. Panagiotis was Born in Piraeus, Greece and came to America in 1967 when he was 17 with his Father, Mother, 5 sisters and brother. Panagiotis became a licensed real estate professional in New York City before moving to Florida and was remembered by all that did business with him as being tough, but fair. He always worked hard for his family, and was adored by tenants in some of the toughest neighborhoods. Despite his success, He was a humble man that was not flashy and that enjoyed the simple things and his family. He had an uncanny ability to reach people in a deep and positive way and was remembered by all that he came across. He devoted himself, his life, his labor to his children. He was a father that would do anything to help his children and always carried the weight of the world on his shoulders. He was a proud man that did not want to ask for help because he was used to always being the one to provide help. He leaves behind 3 loving children, Theodore, Irene, and George that will never forget his love and sacrifice. Panagiotis will now join his Father, Mother, and Brother in heaven and is survived by his three children, Theodore, Irene, and George, his sisters, Kalliopi, Maria, Voula, Pashalia, and Autonia.
