Patricia lived a life filled with love, laughter, and quiet joy.

She is survived by her devoted husband of 61 years, David Joseph Mulvaney; her son David John Mulvaney and his wife Pamela C. Mulvaney of Placida, FL; and her cherished granddaughters, Erin Michelle Mulvaney of Woodstock, GA and Erica Christine Mulvaney of Charleston, SC. She also leaves behind two loving sisters, Francis (Martin) Deeney of Glenolden, PA, and Susan (Thomas) Connolly of Glendale, AZ, along with many dear nieces and nephews and cousins.

Patricia was predeceased by her two beloved daughters, Susan Mulvaney and Emily Mulvaney. Whose memories she carried gently in her heart every day.

A woman of warmth and gentle strength, Patricia found deep happiness in the simple pleasures that brought beauty and connection to her world. She was an avid bingo enthusiast, especially at the Knight of Columbus bingo games in Venice and delighted in completing multiple crossword puzzles, and piecing together jigsaw puzzles with patience and pride, and crafting treasured Creative Memories scrapbooks—each page a loving tribute to family moments she held so dear.

Above all, she cherished every moment spent with her Granddaughters, Erin and Erica, whose laughter filled her soul, and with her many dear friends at the Venice Senior Center and Advinia Health Care of Venice, where her kindness and spirit touched countless lives.

Patricia will be profoundly missed, but her love, her stories, and the light she brought to those around her will live on in every heart she touched.
