

Paul C. Cramer

June 18, 1935 - October 26, 2017

Paul C. Cramer, aged 82, died Thursday, October 26, 2017 at his home in Stoneybrook Golf & Country Club, Sarasota, Florida.

He was born in Louisville, Kentucky and raised in Cincinnati, Ohio. He resided in Cincinnati for many years and started the Paul C. Cramer Company, a sales engineering firm in 1960.

He and his wife Sally, since deceased, eventually migrated south to Sarasota in the 1990's. Later on, after Sally's death, he met and married Linda Fields.

He is survived by his wife Linda, daughter Katherine (Kit) Suddarth, son Compton Cramer, three grandsons (Kyle Suddarth, James Cramer, Michael Cramer), granddaughter Kaleigh Suddarth, brothers Douglas Cramer and Peyton Cramer, plus his extended family with Linda that includes one son, three daughters and 13 grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held in December.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Paul's name may be made to the American Cancer Society, 2970 University Pkwy #104, Sarasota, FL 34243.

Tribute Wall

“ Our thoughts and prayers at your time of loss. ”

Allan and Susan Asselstine - December 06, 2017 at 12:00 AM

“ May the love of friends and family carry you through your grief. ”

Mike Tuke - November 03, 2017 at 12:00 AM