

Paula Wendy Lunn

January 21, 2023

On the morning of January 21, 2023, Paula Wendy Lunn of Sarasota died peacefully in her sleep from Alzheimer's disease at the age of 71.

Paula was born to Moe and Zelda Mendelsohn in Manhattan in 1951. In September of 1974 she married George Lunn, and together raised two children, Michael and Jennifer. Throughout her life, she worked at various retail stores, enjoying her time selling jewelry at Zales and Service Merchandise the most.

She was an award winning photographer with many published greeting cards. She loved to throw summer BBQs and to dance, always trying to convince her husband to take her dancing. She also enjoyed gardening, cooking, and was always willing to try out new technology. She tried to go to Woodstock, even had tickets, but the event closed the highways and she didn't get to make it. 25yrs later, her family went to the 25yr reunion.

To any who met her, she was a positive force with a great sense of humor, always willing to help where she could. Paula is preceded in death by her father Moe, her mother Zelda, and her husband George. She is survived by her children Michael and Jennifer, her grandson Cole, and several cousins, nieces, and nephews. A public celebration of life gathering will be held 1-4pm on February 5th, 2023 at Jennifer Halbert's residence. 4727 Vasca Drive,

Sarasota, FL 34240.

Previous Events

Celebration of Life Gathering

FEB 5. 1:00 PM - 4:00 PM (ET)

Halbert's Residence
4727 Vasca Drive
Sarasota, FL 34240

Tribute Wall

“ Beautiful in Blue was purchased for the family of Paula Wendy Lunn.

January 25, 2023 at 02:11 PM