

Philip T Smith

September 30, 2024

Philip T. Smith, 93, of Longboat Key, FL passed away Monday, September 30th.

Philip is survived by his wife Trudé Smith, his children Lora Lynne, Jeffrey Smith (Shirley), Leslie Panzarella (Joseph) and Lisa Marie Ream (Dale), stepdaughters Deborah George, Aimee Alexander Klun (James), his 10 grandchildren, 20 great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild. He was preceded in death by his parents Hersel and Lois Smith, his wife and mother of his children Norma Smith and sister Jane Lewis (Earl).

Phil was born and lived in Fremont, MI where he raised his family and built a successful business- Smith Propane. He was very proud of his service in the United States Air Force. Phil traveled the world and lived life to its fullest. His love for boating and the University of Michigan will be remembered by all who knew him.

In lieu of flowers, take a boat ride and watch a Michigan football game – Phil would have liked that.

Cremation arrangements by Toale Brothers Funeral Home. Due to Hurricane Milton, the service has been moved to Oct. 23, 2024 at 2:30pm at Sarasota National Cemetery.

“ I am waiting to hear your laugh from heaven!!
We did have the best times!
Slip neighbors at Holiday Inn/
Close slip neighbors in Harbor Springs.
And then - cruising mates in your “ little boat “ - the Sea Ray- a trip from Sarasota to Key West!!
So many great memories!
Did we have air in that boat?
Rest in Peace dear friend!
Love,

“ Good bye my friend, my buddy, my pal. I will see you again soon and we will have many wonderful boating adventures where there are only calm seas and fair winds and if we are lucky perhaps a few drinks of rum. Until then you will always be in my thoughts and prayers. Ron W
