“ Dear loved ones of Phyllis Jeans,

It saddens me to hear of your great loss during this time. Please know there is hope to share in a warm embrace with Phyllis again. God has offered us a beautiful paradise where we will all live in peace eternally. In that paradise our loved ones who have died will come back to live with us eternally. This paradise will exist without sin, or illness, or pain. It will be a perfect world. This beautiful place is in the future of those who remain loyal to God, even during great tribulation those who remain loyal will have a paradise waiting for them.

May Jehovah bless you!
