

Raymond Castellanos

January 18, 2025

Raymond Castellanos, 94, went home to be with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Saturday, January 18, 2025, peacefully, surrounded with family.

He graduated from Samuel Gompers Vocational & Technical High School, Electrical Program, in 1950.

He proudly served his country as a U.S. Army Corporal during the Korean war in Panama with the Infantry.

With his electrical certification, he became a Subway Train Car Inspector with the N.Y. City Transit Authority in 1970 and worked there for Twenty-three {23} years until he retired in 1993.

Ray was an avid bowler. He was a leader, top scorer, and at times the anchor on his bowling teams throughout the years he played in NY leagues.

Ray loved playing hand ball and paddle ball and passionately followed The NY Mets which was his favorite MLB Team.

He loved musicals, sing and dance to variety of Latin Music and some of the “Crooners” especially Frank Sinatra.

Upon Ray's retirement, he became an actor and had "Cameos" in movies and TV shows.

Ray is survived by his family who love him and will miss him greatly. He is predeceased by his parents, siblings & love.

A graveside service will be held on Tuesday, January 28, 2025, at 10:30am, at Sarasota National Cemetery, 9810 State Road 72, Sarasota, FL 34241.
