

Rex Steven Horton

September 2, 1949 - December 18, 2024

Rex Steven Horton, born on September 2, 1949, in Arlington, Virginia, passed away on December 18, 2024, in Sarasota, Florida. He was the beloved son of Howard P. Horton and Anne Kambach Horton, who preceded him in death.

Rex was a man of remarkable intelligence and a successful business owner. Known for his sharp wit and often wildly inappropriate sense of humor, he brought laughter to those around him. Beneath his tough exterior and rebellious spirit lay a kind and sensitive heart. Rex was deeply devoted to the people in his life, caring for them with unwavering love and loyalty.

He found joy in life's many pleasures, including food, boating, traveling, cooking, attending car races, and creating cherished traditions. Above all else, Rex treasured spending time with his family and friends. He was an extraordinary father and an even better grandfather, leaving an indelible mark on the lives of those he loved.

Rex is survived by his devoted wife Brenda; his brother Jon; his sister Brenda; his daughters Jessica and Lyndsey; his sons-in-law Ian and Max, and his three adored grandsons Liam, Nolan, and Maddox. His family will forever hold dear the memories they shared with him.

In accordance with his wishes, Rex will be laid to rest in Burnsville, North Carolina. A celebration of his life will follow in Sarasota, Florida, with details to be announced at a later date.

Rex's legacy of love, humor, and generosity will live on in the hearts of all who knew him. May his memory bring comfort and joy to those he leaves behind.
