“ I haven't seen Rick in over 40 years but his passing floored me. I have so many wonderful memories of hanging with Rick and Ray in the 70's. I will miss his huge laugh and his happy disposition. I apologize for not being able to attend Rick's service. I'm fighting my own battle with cancer and have a chemo treatment on June 6th. Chris, God bless you and your family and grant you the strength to cope with your loss.

“ My deepest condolences to Roberta and Rick's entire family. Rick was a co-worker, a fellow New Yorker and a good friend...and there wasn't a day that we didn't talk about NY, 9/11, motorcycles, the military & police, firearms or family. Rick's life experience, pleasant demeanor and knowledge made him a great person to be around and work with. I feel truly blessed to have had Rick in my life and while his passing is deeply felt, I am comforted to know Rick certainly had his reservation made in heaven. God bless him.

“ This seems weird to send a message to my Ricky, but he was and will always be the first person I talk to about things. He was a good man. Took care of his family first and him second. I can only wish everyone has someone special like him. He spoiled me and I am glad he was there for me. I will never forget his kind delicate ways. I will love him till the end of my days. I know he sees this and wished his family to be comforted. I lift my glass to him. Here's looking at you kid. All my love forever. Your Berta.
