

Richard Joseph Albrecht

April 21, 1930 - October 23, 2016

Richard Joseph Albrecht, 86, of Bradenton, FL (formerly of New York) passed away Sunday, October 23, 2016 after a short illness. Richard was born April 21, 1930 in Brooklyn, New York.

He was his family's hero – a good, kind and patient man and wonderful, loving son, brother, husband to Marcia, father to Jeanne and Linda, grandfather to Michael, Rose, and Jake, great-grandfather, uncle, in-law, friend, and neighbor.

We can only hope to follow his example of putting others first and expecting nothing in return; we can only try our best to honor his legacy by infusing love, kindness, patience and good humor into all we do, as he did. We will carry him with us always, and we hope to see him again someday. Meanwhile, we hope he is playing golf with Arnold Palmer.

A service to celebrate Richard's life will be held at a later date.
