“ Mr. Mohrman was such an amazing and cool guy. He was so easy going and had a great sense of humor which made him a joy to be around and talk to. My first experience with this was as a teenager in high school. I would go over to his house to pick Jess up; but of course she was never ready on time :) So I would end up sitting on the couch for an hour or so just hanging out with him. Usually talking to your friends parents at this age for any length of time is somewhat painful, but not with Mr. Mohrman. There was always a game on and we would just hang out like a couple of guys and talk sports, especially lacrosse, and of course Benji his beloved dog would be right there in the middle. I always appreciated all his support and he will be greatly missed. My condolences to the entire family, I know how much you all loved him. My thoughts are with you.

“ Dick Mohrman was the real deal!

Our senior year at the U of Denver, we were both short three credits to graduate in June. Summer school for both of us. He had housing in his fraternity house Kappa Sigma while I lived in student dorms. My scholarship did not include room and board for summer school. Voila! Dick made me a Kappa Sig for the summer which solved my housing problem as I was now able to bunk in the frat house.

At graduation time, I did not plan to participate in commencement. Foregoing the cap and gown routine, as my parents would not be able to attend. But Dick convinced me to participate as his parents were traveling to Colorado and they would cheer for me, too, when I received my diploma.

Our prayers are with your family through this difficult time.

*With love,
Kevin Dixon*

“ One of Mike’s memories. Dick and I built a storage building over Thanksgiving break when he was up home. Over the holidays Martin and I loaded it on a trailer and took it from Lowville NY to Denver NY. Drove into a bad snow storm and had to leave it at a gas station. Next morning we went and picked it up. We set it up. Martin and I came back home on Sunday. PS if you have a picture of it when they did this Mike would like a picture of it. Mike and I were dating at the time. Many years ago. Back in 1972. Dick will be missed and will always be apart of our family.

“ Dick was a member of Denver University's basketball team. He was one of four players with a last name that began with the letter "M" (Mohrman, Mumma, Martin and Moe). They were known as the M Squad.

DU was in Michigan for a ball game and the team was staying at a hotel next to a tavern. The M Squad on the eve of the game decided that a round of beers would be a good way to spend the evening.

They entered the next door establishment and headed down the stairs to place their order. Half way down the stairs the M Squad saw Hoyt Brawner, DU's basketball coach, sitting at the bar.

An immediate decision without the members' consensus was made and the squad executed a hasty but graceful U-turn. The end result was-they saved themselves from a very unpleasant conversation.

Dick, you will be missed.

“ I am so sorry Dick is gone from this earth. Always something so special about him. High school home room was always laughs as Mc Gowan, Mohrman and Nesbitt were lined up . It was such a wonderful group of young people. On of my fondest memories was meeting Dick in Paris. Dick was in the Army ,playing basketball and I was a flight attendant. He was such a good sport when I suggested we check out the shoe stores. I should add the shoes are as incredible as the sights. I also got to see Dick in San Clemente when he was visiting Jessica in San Diego. It was fun to hear about his children , how he met Carol and how happy he was. Thank you all for loving and caring for him. He deserved and he had a good life. Dick will be missed. Helen Nesbitt Thole

“ As a fraternity man, he was the epitome of a brother. As a team mate, he was the most unselfish player. As a dear friend, no one was more loyal. Dick was the whole person all wrapped up in one human mind and body who never had an enemy in the world. He was the real deal! He unselfishly gave of his time and energy his whole life. All of these reasons are why I have valued our friendship so much for over 62 years.

May our thoughts and prayers be with Carol and the whole family. God rest in peace for Dick is in a better place now.

“ Dick was like a brother to me. I was 13 when we first met and we enjoyed talking sports throughout our time together. He inquired on my college decisions, post college work decisions, both of which always help frame a decision. We shared his season seats for the Buffalo Bills and that got my two boys to games much sooner than otherwise would have happened. I share my condolences with his family at this time and trust he is in God's care.
