“ Sometimes I think of the good times Rob and I had growing up. When we lived on a small farm, riding our little horse Packy, playing with the O'briens, the Festers, just enjoying life. Once in awhile running over to the O'riens to eat cereal with fresh warm milk right out of the cow. Those were simpler and happy times.

“ I was just informed today 9-13-21, by my son Mike, that Rob had died, I am sorry, i missed the celebration of his life. Rob always had a smile, even when frustrated, Rob would smile. Rob is the godfather of soccer in sarasota. Around 1980 when my sons were 8 and 10, Rob, myself, with a few others organized the first soccer club in sarasota. Within a few years youth soccer in this area had more kids than any other sport. Rob's leadership and time guided many a youth through fun and competitive soccer. He is responsible for many college scholarships, including my son David. Hundreds if not thousands in this community owe a better life to Rob. Thanks with love. Lee Gast
