“ Excellent mentor and even better friend. At a time when I wanted to give up, he kept believing in me. His mentorship and business sense helped us to go on to be entrepreneurs and believe in ourselves. I know you are still looking down over us. Fighting My own lung battles you helped us not be as scared we just found out mine is spreading, and now I'm going until my last possible breath with you in my heart..

“ So many great memories!
He was the brother I never had and he took his job quite seriously. I recently found out that when I was dating my husband Tommy, Roger pulled him aside at a gathering and warned him never to hurt me, or else.
I'm not exactly sure how my husband felt, but I felt the love of a big Brother!
You will be very missed!

“ I remember when we had a family Thanksgiving dinner at our house.
After everyone left Roger asked if there was any pumpkin pie left. I said yes. He went and got I thought a piece and to my amazement he had gotten 3/4 of pie and ate it all. I got a big kick out of that. He loved pumpkin pie. He was such a wonderful brother n law. I will miss him so much.
RIP my brother Love you.

“ Roger and I were completely different on the surface, but through the years of working together and sharing our thoughts and critiques, I learned that we were more alike than we knew and in the most important ways. I will treasure the memories and laughs forever.
Thank you for being a bigger part of my life than even I knew.
With love, respect, and eternal appreciation.
