

Roger B Rogos

April 3, 1940 - March 7, 2017

Roger passed away from cancer complications on March 7, 2017.

He is survived by his wife, Linda Rogos of Sarasota, Florida, his son and daughter-in-law Randall and Sarah Rogos of Denver, Colorado, and his daughter and son-and-law Lauri and Hal Lewis of St. Augustine, Florida. He will be dearly missed by his three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Roger was an avid golfer, sports fanatic, Elvis fan, and lover of Italian food. He liked to work out, play the stocks, and watch Fox News. He was very generous to everyone who knew him and many who didn't. He cared deeply for his friends that he made throughout his years: as a teacher and basketball coach in Champion, Ohio; during his time at American Express Financial Services, his church, and his golf league at Prestancia Country Club. He was married for over 54 years to Linda, who was his partner and the love of his life.

A memorial service will be held at Siesta Key Chapel, Sarasota, Florida on Saturday, March 11 at 1:00 p.m.

Roger will be interred at Newton Falls Cemetery in Newton Falls, Ohio.
