She also developed intimate knowledge and expertise of the Supply System and established herself as a reliable and sought-after Subject Matter Expert throughout the Naval Supply Systems Command. She was a leader and mentor to many and an invaluable asset to all, resulting in significant contributions to the enterprise. As a result of her achievements, she was given multiple awards throughout her career, including the Naval Air Station Norfolk Woman of the Year Award in 1983. She retired in September 2010 following 38 years of service.

Bird Key Yacht Club board. She was also a current board member of the Bird Key Women's Association. In addition, she contributed her time to countless other causes and organizations throughout her life.

Rosanne was very well-rounded and had a variety of hobbies. She was a gifted artisan crafter and enjoyed creating pieces of sculptural shell art and stained glass. She loved planting and gardening, in particular orchids, bromeliads, and other Florida native plants. In addition, she enjoyed boating and traveling around the United States and world with her family. She was an avid reader and an engaged member of multiple local book clubs. She also met with a group of women to play mah-jongg weekly. She is a lifelong lover of animals, particularly dogs, and leaves behind her beloved chihuahua, Garbo.

“ I was fortunate to work with Rosanne many years ago at the Naval Air Station in Norfolk, Va. She was really smart, fun and personable. I really liked her. I also know her brother, Lester. I am so sorry for your loss John. May she rest in peace.

“ Rest In Peace, Rosanne. You are a beautiful and touching spirit. We first met you 5 years ago when we moved to Bird Key and you were the President of the HOA. We last saw you only three weeks ago, as we were leaving for Ireland to be home for Christmas, and you were looking forward to getting your MRI/back treatment. We talked about us all wanting to be able to enjoy our long walks on Bird Key for years to come. We are all better off for your time in our lives...and we thank you. May God Bless you Rosanne and may you protect John as his Guardian Angel.

Rest In Peace...until we meet again.
