

Rosemary LoPinto

October 4, 1927 - August 3, 2017

Rosemary LoPinto, 89, of Sarasota, FL died August 3, 2017. She was born on October 4, 1927, in Brooklyn, New York and came to Florida 22 years ago from Garden City, New York.

She with her husband, Joseph LoPinto, who owned a real estate appraisal company that merged with Sackland -Gillian, was a "real estate flipper" before there were flippers, renovating homes with her Old World pewter, Early American antiques and handmade decorations, and living in them for several years before selling.

She loved her Catholic Church, traveling, eventually with the grandchildren whom she took to Marineo, the village she and Joe's family came from next to Corleone, Sicily.

She will most be remembered for bringing family and friends together for impassioned discussions during extensive homemade Italian feasts.

Survivors include her son and his wife, Anthony and Susan LoPinto of New York City, daughter and husband, Maryann and a Jeffrey Horton of Sarasota, FL and 2 grandsons, Michael and Douglas, granddaughter, Tracey, and two great-grandsons, Kellen and Sean.

Internment will be in Florida National Cemetery in Bushell, handled by Toale Funeral Homes, Ewing Chapel.

Memorial donations may be made to the Armory Arts and Music Center restoration in Duluth, MN (dulutharmory.org).
