

Samuel Alexander Grossbart

April 9, 1915 - May 1, 2017

Samuel Alexander Grossbart passed away peacefully at the age of 102 on May 1, 2017. He was born in Detroit, Michigan where he began as a high school teacher and then became noted as an outstanding home developer.

Sam took an early retirement by moving to Mexico where he spent five years learning the language and enjoying the beauty of San Miguel Allende, an Art Center which attracted many Americans.

On returning to the United States he became active again, this time as a Real Estate Investor joining a new group of friends in Cambridge, Massachusetts for many more years. Sam loved travel, exercise, books and music.

He spent many years traveling with his wife of 41 years, Elinor, before settling in Sarasota, Florida.

Sam was particularly proud of his son Ted Grossbart, a psychologist who wrote the book "Skin Deep" and was known around the world. Ted unfortunately passed away before him as well as his daughter Elaine.

He is survived by his wife Elinor, of Sarasota, his daughter-in-law Rosaley of Marblehead, MA; grandsons Zachary of Cambridge, MA and Matthew of Santa Barbara, CA, plus nieces and nephews around the world

He was loved by many and will be missed by all.

Private memorial services will be held in Lincoln, Massachusetts.

Memorial gifts in his honor may be sent to the charity of your choice.
