Sandra Joan Britt (LoBalbo), passed away on May 3rd, 2024, peacefully in her home on Siesta Key, FL. Born to Fred and Bridget LoBalbo on February 16th, 1947, in New York City, Sandra had an impact on so many with her faith, kindness and love.

Sandra was a cherished member of the LoBalbo, Greco and Britt families, sister to Fred (and Linda) LoBalbo and Doreen LoBalbo, Mother to John Greco, Jody (and Gianni) Bisceglia, Jesse (and Tina) Greco and Jeffrey (and Lauren) Greco and Wife to Trebor Britt and his family, married in 2008 in a beautiful ceremony on Siesta Beach.

Grandma Sandy was a loving and proud Grandma to her five grandchildren, Liano and Stefano (Bisceglia), Anthony (Greco), Brooklyn and Dominick (Greco). Aunt Sandra has four nieces, Denise Masi, Stacey Carew, Lori Marcella (LoBalbo) and Jamie Caiola (LoBalbo) who will carry her legacy of kindness and joy. returned to school and earned a Bachelor of Science in Nursing and became a Registered Nurse working for Sarasota Memorial Hospital and Hospice. Towards the end of her life, Sandra worked for Sarasota Country as a substitute teacher throughout Sarasota elementary schools.

As a woman of strong faith, Sandra began everyday studying her beloved bible and listening to Dr. Charles Stanley. Raising active and athletic children and grandchildren, inevitably took her to many fields and gyms continuing to grow her love for sports throughout her life.

Sandra loved spending time on the beaches of Siesta Key and down the Jersey Shore with her family, driving up and down the East Coast often to celebrate her family.

Mom's ability to listen with empathy and love unconditionally, had a profound impact on so many, including her church families in Sarasota and NJ.

Predeceased by her parents, Sandra's memory will be cherished and kept alive by her husband Trebor, her children, grandchildren, brother Fred, sister Doreen, and everyone she impacted by her presence.

Sandra's family asks that she be remembered for the joy she brought to others in life not the sadness of her passing.

“Sandy has been in my life since 1969 when we first met on Fire Island. Some of our best vacations were spent together in Lavallette, NJ. Big circles of friends & family on the beach every day, all day. Crabbing in the bay then cooking pounds of spaghetti with crab sauce. Happy hour at Krones or the American Legion hall. We spent many happy times together, always on a beach (Cape Cod, Fire Island & most recently at Point Pleasant Beach). She loved the beach as do I. So many memories. She will be missed. You can now rest peacefully in the arms of the Lord Sandy.

Sandy was a very unique person: compassionate, kind, gentle and caring. Although I knew Sandy for only a short time, she introduced me to ministry classes; she became my mentor and model as I learned to accept the ups and downs of life and, most important, to find peace and strength in the Word of God. I will be forever thankful to her for being there for me when I needed a word of comfort and encouragement. She is now resting peacefully in the arms of God and watching over her family and friends. I will miss you, Sandy.

“ Growing up, I always looked forward to visits from your family! My mom loved Sandra so much, as did we all. When I was in my early teens, your mom gave me the candle in this pic. She said she bought it for me because it reminded her of me. I saved it to this day. It's on my dresser, and I think about her every time I see it. May she rest in peace.
