“ Oh Charlie and family my heart is broken for you! I ran into Sandy at an event at my church (SCC) and met your beautiful daughter and grandkids. It was so good to catch up and remember our days working together at SMH. I will be praying for your strength as you strive to walk in this life without her. She loved you and was so proud of you and her family!

“ Sandy truly lived her life with joy, and treasured her family and friends. I count myself lucky to have known her with the SHS Class of 81'. She made sure we stayed together and was greatly involved planning our 35th reunion. Meeting in May to talk about the next one, our group that came was so blessed to see her. Sympathies to Charlie and her beautiful family.
