

Sandra "Sandi" (Stebbins) Warner

January 29, 2022

Sandra "Sandi" (Stebbins) Warner passed away peacefully at home in her sleep surrounded by family at the age of 80. She was a resident of Venice, FL and spent summers in Matunuck, RI. She was born in Westfield, MA and was the loving daughter of Philip and Paulita (Beauchemin) Stebbins of Blandford, Ma.

Sandi graduated from Westfield High School and earned an associates degree from Baypath University.

Sandi retired from the United States Post Office in 1998, after 14 years, but the job she was most proud of was homemaker. Her true legacy was her fierce love of family and friends. Her door and heart were always open. You were welcome to come play a hand of cards or spend an entire weekend. Even if beds were filled, you were welcome to a spot on the floor or the garage at the beach house. You would be hard pressed to find a speck of dust to deter you from either. You would most often find Sandi smiling at the beach, on a shopping spree with friends or at the casino. She celebrated 41 years of marriage with her husband Ken, always by each other's side throughout their journey.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by a brother Donald Stebbins and a step-son Christopher Warner. Surviving in addition to her husband, Ken Warner, are her daughters, Heather Dubian and Michelle Dubian (husband Rob Mayer); step-daughter Shelly Olson (husband Tim); granddaughters, Raelyn Olson, Megan Olson and Chloe Hawkins; brothers Gary Stebbins (wife Anita), Neil Stebbins and Dennis Stebbins (wife Judy); and many nieces and nephews.

A celebration of life will be held during the summer of 2022.

Those who wish to remember Sandi in a special way may make gifts in her memory to Tidewell Hospice, 5955 Rand Blvd, Sarasota, FL 34238
