

Santosh Devan

January 10, 1941 - February 22, 2023

Dear Family and Friends

I am deeply saddened by the loss of my Mom, Santosh Devan. She transitioned beautifully on 2/22/2023 to join my dad, Dr. Jas Paul Devan (known as JP) in heaven. Over the past 30 plus years, I observed how strong of a woman she really became as she cared for my father who fell ill for several years. After the loss of my dad, she independently handling all of life's challenges without ever disrupting a day of mine. She loved Cameron (her grandson) dearly, and she holds a very special place in his heart as she does in mine. All those who knew her, loved her dedication and loyalty to God and her family. Always putting others first. Now has come her time to rest in peace.

“Mom, you held me as I took my first breath, thank you for allowing me to hold you as you took your last”. Forever your daughter Meeru

A private Sanskar / Memorial Service for immediate family will be held at the Toale Brothers Funeral Home in Bradenton Florida on March 4, 2023

Please join us for a prayer ceremony followed by Langar (India meal) at:
12:00 pm on March 5, 2023

Sikh Gurdwara (15302 Morris Bridge Road, Thonotosassa, FL 33592)

In prayers for a great Mom and an amazing Grandma,
Meeru, Cameron and Devan Family

The family requests that in lieu of flowers, donations may be made (if desired), in Santosh Devan's name to Sikh Gurdwara in Tampa Florida <https://tampagurdwara.com>

Tribute Wall

NP

“ Our sincere condolences to Meeru , Cameron and family . You are in our thoughts & prayers . I first met Santosh aunty in 1984 when she visited us in upstate NY . I remember she had lovingly baked an upside down pineapple cake that she had carried all the way from Maine . We were struck by the love and affection she showered upon us then , and , over all the years her caring nature never diminished. Aunty became a part of our evenings together , whenever I visited my mother (Sushila Gupta) in Sarasota . She would always prepare & bring a little treat to share ! I especially loved her pakodas ! We would laugh & share funny & dear stories about our families and the evenings would fly by so quickly . Aunty is an indelible part of my Sarasota memories and I thank her for them.
My family and I are so grateful for all her love and she will never be forgotten.
Rest in peace now , Dear Santosh Aunty !
Neena Paranjpe & Family

Nina Paranjpe - February 28, 2023 at 05:32 PM

SS

“ Heartfelt Condolences to Meeru, Cameron, family and friends. May the Divine guide all through the Eternal Loving Message of Shabad (Guru) in Granth Sahib to understand and accept this inescapable reality of our existence. Her love will always be with us through innumerable beautiful memories - Simar, Manroop, Mandeep, Saurabh and Mahinder Singh

Saurabh Raj Singh - February 25, 2023 at 02:04 PM

CK

“ 🙏 May Waheguru bless her the place in His abode & give strength to bear the loss. Dhan Guru Nanak ji 🙏 🌹 . Chander and Kanta

chander kanta - February 24, 2023 at 08:43 PM