

Spirou David

May 28, 1928 - May 8, 2018

Spirou David, 89, of Sarasota, FL (formally of Dix Hills, NY) passed away peacefully on Tuesday May 8, 2018 at Brookdale Downtown Sarasota. Spirou was born on May 28, 1928 in Bronx, NY. Spirou was the son of Keriazis and Soteria David, and the brother to Katherine DeLucia from Eastham, MA. Spirou was married to the love of his life, Martha David, for 54 years who recently passed away in March of this year. Spirou is survived by his three loving sons, William (Karin), Kenneth (Lisa) and Christopher (Nicole), and grandchildren Chloe, Nicholas, Gabrielle, Sophia and Evan. Spirou was dedicated to his work and his family. He successfully started and managed his own fiberglass manufacturing business. His work included facades at (the original) Yankee Stadium, the token booths of the NY transit system and inside rails at Aqueduct and Belmont Racetracks. His work was also featured in the movie "The Wiz".

He was a devoted member of Saint Paraskevi Greek Orthodox Shrine Church in Greenlawn, NY. Spirou loved to host BBQs, complete crossword puzzles and spend time with family and friends. Spirou has always been a kind and outgoing person, and upon arriving in Sarasota three years ago has made many new friends.

Services will be held at 10:30am on Tuesday May 15, 2018 at Saint Barbara Greek Orthodox Church at 7671 Lockwood Ridge Road, Sarasota, FL.

Following the service, Spirou will be laid to rest at Venice Memorial Gardens, 1950 Center Road, Venice, FL.
