“ Stan treated me like a son. He was there for me my entire life since birth and always provided support when I needed it. He had a great sense of humor and a positive outlook on life. He taught me many things and cannot be replaced. My entire life and success would not be the same had he not been there for me. Sad to see you go, but happy to have known you. Rest well my brother!

“ I am very saddened to hear about Stanley's passing. I lived two doors away from him and spoke to him a couple of times. He was always kind and gracious. May his soul rest in perfect peace. My condolences to his loved ones.
