“ Your Loss Was Certainly Heavens Gain...We are taught through our Faith that we are not to question. ...sometimes that is easier said than done...I do know that sometimes when he calls us home....there is no time to pack... You Dad touched many lives...we all shared many laughs so now is the time we will share many tears....He Will Be Missed...And I Personally Hope That In Time Each Of You Will Find Some Sort Of Peace . knowing He Was Loved And That He Has Become Whole Again...Although his pain is over yours may just be beginning...Cherish The Memories Embrace The Flashbacks that will come in the still of the night a song from the radio and in many other ways...Of The Better Days ...Listen Quietly Know God Works In Mysterious Ways....And Know That Now You Each Have Your Own Personal Angle Watching Over You From Above.....I Love Each Of You....

“ Marsha and Family my deepest sympathies. Steve was one of my first friends when I arrived in 1995. I was always welcome in his home and shared many meals at the family table. Steve made a difference in this world. He was a kind and generous man. I am very sad to have lost my dear friend. RIP Stephen.
