“ Phyllis and Family,

As I said on Scott's Facebook page....Steve Winfield, He Should Rest in Peace, was ONE OF A KIND! He lived life to the fullest and full of GUSTO. Whatever he did, he did with passion. His love for you my cousin was without depth and no ending.... You were his life and he also lived that to the fullest and to the best he could.

You and the Family kept him alive and I know that all of you cherished the time you had with him. When he was well, he was hard to keep up with...HE LOVED LIFE AND LOVED HIS FAMILY and all of you have that to remember and keep in your hearts.

I have so many memories of both of you in St. Louis. We were together for many historic moments and Steve, He should Rest in Peace, and I had so many wonderful times together...before and after your marriage.

The World is a Sadder Place without those who love so strongly and deeply as he did and for the right reason.

May Steve's memory be a blessing to all of us, especially at this time of our New Year. His life was Written In The Book for so many years and the Book has so many wonderful chapters about how he lived, grew up, matured, and was lucky enough to realize that marrying Phyllis Cohen was meant to be and the marriage completed him with his sons.

Love You Steve, and assure you that your wonderful wife will be taken care of and will want for nothing.
