

Tammie Rehnae Slayton

September 24, 2018

Tammie Rehnae Slayton passed away at the age of 60 on September 24, 2018. She spent her last weeks at home in Sarasota, surrounded by the love of her family. Her creativity, talent, laughter, and love will be greatly missed. She is survived by her daughter Sunshine Slayton, daughter and son-in-law Amber Slayton and Karl Harik, step-granddaughter Alison Harik, brothers Bill Kilgore and Thom Davis, and many cousins. She is predeceased by her parents, Fayrene King Davis and Tom R. Davis. In keeping with Rehnae's love of the ocean, her ashes will be spread in the water at a later date.

“ My heart is heavy just finding of Rehnae's passing. We met when she was here in WA. We clicked right away and we found that our birthdays were close mine the day before her's. I will cherish the time we spent together and the picture she sent me of her and her dog. Continual prayers for ALL at this time. Toni Othieno, WA

“ Oh my wow I am blown away! Really one of the nicest ladies I ever met! My heart is heavy. She always made me feel like one of the most important people in her life... a real kindred spirit! Heaven has truly taken back one of theirs... a true lady, thank you Miss Rehnae for your last goodbye and bringing me my childhood bible... you will be forever remembered my sweet mama lady! Spread your wings and fly
