

Thomas D. Rotunda

March 20, 1939 - April 29, 2023

Thomas D. Rotunda, 84, of Venice, Florida died suddenly at home. He was the son of Joseph E. Rotunda, Sr. and Glenna Lafayette.

He is survived by his wife Barbara, his son's Kevin (Cindy) of Yemassee, SC and Kennie (Stephanie) of Parker, CO, his daughter's Angela Otero of Lakeland, FL, Victoria Doty (Brian) of Plant City, FL, Debi Spayth of Greenville, TN and Mary (Dave) Adams, St. Petersburg, FL. Also, 22 grandchildren, 26 great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Tom was born and raised in Vermont and at an early age worked at his parent's grocery store in Jericho, Vermont. At 17 Tom was the youngest business owner in the state of Vermont, owning Riverside TV and Appliance.

Tom served 9 years as an electronics specialist in the Army National Guard and in 1975 moved to Florida.

During the last 40 years, Tom spent his career serving as a consultant and educator in the healthcare industry. He developed a distinctive, industry leading, training system for teaching housekeeping professionals the concepts of microbiology and sanitation, thus ultimately certifying numerous individuals and entire environmental service departments as Nationally recognized professionals.

Tom was respected in his field and proud of his contributions to the industry. He was often heard joking, you've tried their way, now try "Tom's way".

Tom loved being surrounded by friends and family and devoted numerous hours serving the community as the past President of the Kiwanis Club.
